Praise for Bits and Pieces of Prayer

“Quite beautiful, moving, powerful, uplifting. Wow!”

-- Arthur Kurzweil, author of Kabbalah for Dummies

“This small book portrays the author’s life and how prayer has entered into it, wrenchingly honest at times and at other times quite whimsically.”

-- Dr. Kalman Kaplan, co-author of The Seven Habits of the Good Life: How the Biblical Virtues Free Us from the Seven Deadly Sins

Praise for “Our Work is Never Done”

Prayer written in September 2005 to remember and commemorate the tsunami in East Asia, hurricanes Katrina and Rita and the continuing U.S. led War in Iraq.

“It is beautiful and gutsy and honest and if I were God I would want to answer it. It is so obvious that it has emerged straight from the author’s heart, straight from her own prayerfulness.”

-- Sister Mary Sullivan, r.c. (religious of the cenacle)

“This powerful new prayer is needed now more than ever. In many ways a Job-like utterance. Blaming the Almighty is a great tradition, and transcending that, as the author beautifully suggests, is an even greater one.”

-- Tom Benjamin, Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia (MD)

“It makes me feel connected to the present and the eternal all at once.”

-- Marilyn Hendershot, Beth Emet The Free Synagogue, Evanston, IL

Advance praise for Pulling the Pieces into Prayer

“Rich, deep and sensitive and brings poetry of the spirit to the world of prayer and inner life.”

-- Rabbi Myriam Klotz, Director of Yoga and Embodied Practices, Institute for Jewish Spirituality, New York, NY

“This book has been a blessing to my spirit. It should be shared with whomever God has told you (the author) to bless with your Nuggets of Life.”

-- Evangelist Sherry L. Meeks, Memphis, TN
